

JOANNA REINER has taught English dance for over two decades. In addition to being one of the leaders of the Philadelphia-based Germantown Country Dancers, her calling has taken her from Amherst to Ann Arbor, from NEFFA to Hey Days, from St. Croix to Vancouver, and other points abroad, including many sessions at Pinewoods Camp. Joanna loves teaching workshops for ECD callers, and workshops that explore ECD technique, new dances, and how people learn and remember dance choreography. While known for her clear calling and instruction, Joanna is also an avid dance gypsy, and in her spare time, works to support her dance habit.

FOXFIRE is Karen Axelrod, piano, and Daron Douglas, fiddle. Their fresh takes on the old tunes have led to extraordinary dancing from California to Copenhagen. Foxfire plays at CDSS summer camps, at Brasstown, and Playford balls and contradance festivals throughout the year. They brighten the English country dance repertoire and in the words of the introduction to the 1651 Dancing Master "much commend this Art to be Excellent for Recreation, making the body active and strong, graceful in deportment and very much beseeming a Gentleman." (We beseem Ladies too.) Come join in the fun as we dance to the noble, lighthearted, and mysterious music of Foxfire. (Foxfire is the proud parent of two CD's, "The Introduction" and "Winter Oranges.")
